

Unitarian Universalist Church of Muncie
Dedicated Offering Nomination Form
Social Justice Committee

The Unitarian Universalist Church of Muncie collects a Dedicated Offering on two Sundays every month as a way of putting our values into practice in the world. These collections typically occur the first two Sundays, but the timing may be adjusted to avoid low-attendance Sundays. Dedicated Offerings can be taken for one-time projects or to help established organizations in their ongoing work.

Please answer the following questions in a brief statement (no more than 250 words) in a document attached to this form.

1. How does this project/organization align with one of our seven Unitarian Universalist principles.
2. Is there a relationship between this project and individual UUCM members/friends (for example: current or past volunteers, board members, etc.)?
3. How would this money be used? Is there an immediate need or deadline? How would a UUCM average donation of $500-800 make a difference? (A response to this question may be written by a representative of the project/organization.)

Please send this form and supporting documents as email attachments to: uucm@uuchurchmuncie.org. Please note "Dedicated Offering Request" in the subject line.
